

Brown v. DIRECTV, LLC
United States District Court, Central District of California,
Case No. 2:13-cv-1170

Why would I ask to be excluded?

If you want to keep the right to sue DIRECTV individually on your own or be a part of a case against DIRECTV (as a class member or otherwise) about the legal issues in this case, then you must take steps to exclude yourself or opt-out from the Settlement.

If you ask to be excluded, you will not get any payment, and you cannot object to the Settlement. You will not be legally bound by anything that happens in this Settlement.

If you do not exclude yourself and the Settlement is finally approved, you give up any right to sue DIRECTV or any Released Persons on any of the claims that this Settlement resolves. You must exclude yourself from this Settlement Class to continue your own lawsuit.

I request to be excluded from the Settlement Class. I understand that if I am excluded from the Settlement Class, I will not receive any money from the Settlement. I understand that if I am excluded from the Settlement Class, I will not be bound by any judgment in this case and I am not agreeing to the terms of the Settlement between the parties.
